4. Shareholder Communication Instructions

SECURITIES REGULATION REQUIRES THAT I PROVIDE YOU WITH MY INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION BEFORE YOU CAN HOLD ANY SECURITIES FOR ME.

I have read and understand the "Shareholder Communication Information" that you have provided to me (included in the Account Agreements and Shareholders Communications) and the choices indicated by me apply to all of the securities held in this account.

When you purchase securities through Canadian ShareOwner Investments Inc. (CSII), they are held for you in an electronic form to facilitate the placement and settlement of trades very quickly. Consequently, the securities are not registered in your name and the issuer of the securities does not know your identity.

Disclosure of Beneficial Ownership Information

Securities laws allow securityholder materials to be sent to you by the reporting issuer and by other persons and companies – if you do not object to having certain personal information disclosed to them. That personal information includes your name, address, electronic mail address, securities holdings and preferred language of communication.

You have the option to tell us not to give the above personal information to the reporting issuer or other persons or companies.

Question 1.

Do you allow us to provide the above personal information to the issuer of the securities or other persons or companies, so that they may forward securityholder materials directly to you?

No Yes

Answer Required

Please note that if you answer "Yes," you will not be charged with any costs associated with sending securityholder materials to you. If you answer "No," CSII may still be required, by law, to send these materials to you and you may be responsible to pay any costs associated with providing that information to you.

Receiving Shareholder Information

Security holder materials sent to beneficial owners of securities consist of the following materials: (a) proxy-related materials for annual and special meetings; (b) annual reports and financial statements that are not part of proxy-related materials; and (c) materials sent to security holders that are not required by corporate or securities law to be sent.

Question 2.

What materials do you want to receive?

- I WANT to receive ALL securityholder materials sent to beneficial owners of securities.
I DECLINE to receive ALL securityholder materials sent to beneficial owners of securities. (Even if I decline to receive these types of materials, I understand that a reporting issuer or other person or company is entitled to send these materials to me at its expense.)
I WANT to receive ONLY proxy-related materials that are sent in connection with a special meeting.

Answer Required

CSII cannot open an account without answers to the above two questions. Of course, you can change your instructions at any time by writing to us.

5. No Advice or Recommendations

I acknowledge that CSII has not and will not provide me with any legal, tax or accounting advice, investment advice or recommendations regarding the suitability or profitability of any security, transaction or investment. I further acknowledge that CSII's employees are not authorized to give any such advice and I agree that I will not solicit or rely upon any such advice from CSII or any of its employees. I assume full responsibility for my investment decisions and all transactions in my account and agree that CSII and its officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates will have no liability for any such investment decisions or transactions. I acknowledge that CSII will not consider my financial situation, investment knowledge, investment objectives or risk tolerance when accepting orders.
